ADVISORY

The National Police Commission (NAPOLCOM) has been receiving reports, thru text and internet messages, about the non-release of the results of the police entrance and promotional examinations conducted on October 23, 2011 due to massive cheating, and the alleged rescheduling of the said exams on January 28, 2012.

NAPOLCOM clarifies that the results of the October 23, 2011 exams were NOT invalidated and that the same will be released very soon after the Commission's Electronic Data Processing Services Division (EDP) finishes with the checking of all the answer sheets. Thus, there is NO truth to the supposed rescheduling of the examinations.

To get an accurate information on the results of NAPOLCOM examinations, just text NAPOLCOM<space>EXAMRSLT<space>"Application Number or Examinee's Full Name" Note: use the 6-digit application number assigned by NAPOLCOM, ex: 010001; while names should be entered in this format: Last/First/Middle, including slashes to: 2256 for Globe/TM/Handyphone; 6808 for Smart/Talk'nText; and 2269 for Sun Cell; or log-in to the NAPOLCOM website www.napolcom.gov.ph or call the Examination Division, Personnel and Administrative Service at telephone numbers 899-0085 • 403-2588.

We urge our clients to be guided accordingly.
