MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR NO. 2001-007

PROHIBITING THE PHILIPPINE NATIONAL POLICE (PNP)
FROM ISSUING SPECIAL ORDERS FOR EITHER
APPOINTMENTS OR PROMOTIONS BEFORE
ATTESTATION THEREOF BY THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION (CSC)

WHEREAS, under Section 2, Rule 1V of the rules implementing Book V of Executive Order No. 292 and Other Pertinent Civil Service Laws, it provides that "No appointment shall be made effective earlier than the date of issuance, except in the case of change of status in view of having acquired a civil service eligibility x x x";

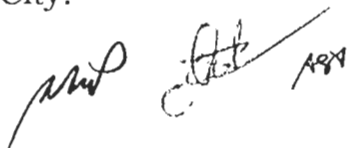

WHEREAS, under Section 5 thereof, it further directs that "The services rendered by any person who was required to assume the duties and responsibilities of any position without an appointment having been issued by the appointing authority shall not be credited nor recognized by the Commission and shall be the personal accountability of the person who made him assume office";

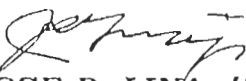

WHEREAS, it has been noted that the previous practice of the erstwhile Philippine Constabulary and Integrated National Police of issuing appointments or promotions by and thru special orders has been carried over up to the present;

WHEREAS, such procedure results in conflict with CSC rules and regulations it appearing that more often there is disparity between the dates of effectivity of the special order and the actual appointment, thereby causing confusion among the PNP appointees and promotees;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission, in the exercise of its administration and control function over the PNP, HAS RESOLVED, AS IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED, to prohibit the PNP from issuing special orders for appointment and promotion before the attestation thereof by the CSC and that any special order issued in connection therewith must conform with the effectivity dates of such appointments or promotions.

ADOPTED this 9th day of August in the Year Two Thousand, One, Makati City.
